NAME

The name of the association is the Sunshine Coast Bromeliad Society Incorporated

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the association are:-

1. To promote good fellowship among all people interested in the culture of Bromeliads and in horticulture generally.
2. To further the knowledge and advancement of all that pertains to Bromeliads, including their natural history, conservation, cultivation and hybridisation.
3. To disseminate information about Bromeliads and carry out educational and research activities into all aspects of Bromeliaceae.

NON PROFIT CLAUSE

The assets and income of the organisation shall be applied solely in furtherance of its above mentioned objectives and no portion shall be distributed directly or indirectly to the members of the organisation except as bona fide compensation for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the organisation.

POWERS

1. The association has the powers of an individual.
2. The association may for example:-
 - (a) enter into contracts; and
 - (b) acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and
 - (c) make charges for services and facilities it supplies; and
 - (d) do other things necessary or convenient to be done in carrying out its affairs.
3. The association may take over the funds and other assets and liabilities of the present unincorporated association known as "The Sunshine Coast Bromeliad Society".
4. The association may also issue secured and unsecured notes, debentures and debenture stock for the association.

CLASSES OF MEMBERS

1. The membership of the association shall consist of ordinary members, and any of the following classes of members:-
 - (a) Life members;
 - (b) Family members.
2. The number of ordinary members is unlimited.

MEMBERSHIP

1. A person who, on the day the association was incorporated, was a member of the unincorporated association and who, on or before a day fixed by the management committee, agrees in writing to become a member of the incorporated association, must be admitted by the management committee to the same class of membership of the association as the member held in the unincorporated association.
2. A member of the incorporated association who, before becoming a member, has paid the member's annual subscription for membership of the unincorporated association on or before a day fixed by the management committee, is not liable to pay a further amount of annual subscription before the day fixed by the management committee as the day on which the next annual subscription is payable.
3. An applicant for membership of the association, other than the members of the unincorporated association mentioned in subsection 1, must be proposed by 1 member of the association (the "proposer") and seconded by another member (the "seconder").
4. An application for membership must be-
 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) signed by the applicant and the applicant's proposer and seconder; and
 - (b) in the form decided by the management committee.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

1. The membership fee for each class of membership-
 - (a) is the amount decided by the members from time to time at a general meeting; and
 - (b) is payable when, and in the way, the management committee decides.

ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF MEMBERS

1. The management committee must consider an application for membership at the next meeting of the committee held after it receives-
 - (a) the application; and
 - (b) the appropriate membership fee for the application.
2. The management committee must decide at the meeting whether to accept or reject the application.
3. If a majority of the committee members present at the meeting vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member to the class of membership for which the application has been made.
4. The secretary of the association must, as soon as practicable after the management committee decides to accept or reject the application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

WHEN MEMBERSHIP ENDS

1. A member may resign from the association by giving a written notice of resignation to the secretary.
2. The resignation takes effect on-
 - (a) the day and at the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - (b) if a later day is stated in the notice – the later day.
3. The management committee may terminate a member's membership if the member-
 - (a) is convicted of an indictable offence; or
 - (b) does not comply with any of the provisions of these rules; or
 - (c) has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months,
 - (d) conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the association.
4. Before the management committee terminates a member's membership, the committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
5. If, after considering all representations made by the member, the management committee decides to terminate the membership, the secretary of the committee must give the member a written notice of the decision.

APPEAL AGAINST REJECTION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

1. A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.
2. A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person receives written notice of the decision.
3. If the secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within 3 months after the day of receipt, call a general meeting to decide the appeal.
4. At the meeting, the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.
5. Also, the management committee and the committee members who rejected the application or terminated the membership must be given an opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.
6. An appeal must be decided by a vote of the members present at the meeting.
7. If a person whose application has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within one month after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the secretary must, as soon as practicable, refund the application fee paid by the person.

REGISTER OF MEMBERS

1. The management committee must keep a register of members.
2. The register of members must include the following particulars for each member-
 - (a) the full name and residential address of the member;
 - (b) the date of admission as a member;
 - (c) the date of death or resignation of a member;
 - (d) details about the termination or reinstatement of membership;
 - (e) any other particulars the management committee or the members at a general meeting decide.
3. The register must be open for inspection at all reasonable times.
4. However, before the member may inspect the register, the member must apply to the secretary to inspect it.

SECRETARY

1. If the association has not elected an interim officer as secretary for the association before it's incorporation, the members of the management committee must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the association within 1 month after incorporation.
2. If a vacancy happens in the office of secretary, the members of the management committee must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the association within 1 month after the vacancy happens.
3. The secretary must be an individual residing in Queensland, or in another state but not more than 65 km from the Queensland border, who is –
 - (a) a member of the association elected by the association as secretary; or
 - (b) any of the following persons appointed by the management committee-
 - (i) a member of the association's management committee;
 - (ii) a member of the association
 - (iii) another person
4. The management committee may appoint and remove the association's secretary at any time.

MEMBERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. The management committee of the association consists of a president, vice-president, treasurer, and any other members the association members elect or appoint at a general meeting.
2. A member of the management committee, other than the secretary must be a member of the association.
3. At each annual general meeting of the association, the members of the management committee must retire from office, but are eligible, on nomination, for re-election.

ELECTING THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. A member of the management committee may only be elected as follows-
 - (a) any 2 members of the association may nominate another member (the candidate) to serve as a member of the management committee;
 - (b) the nomination must be-
 - (i) in writing, and
 - (ii) signed by the candidate and the members who nominated him or her; and
 - (iii) given to the secretary at least 14 days before the annual general meeting at which the election is to be held;

- (c) each member present at the annual general meeting may vote for any number of candidates not more than the number of vacancies;
 - (d) if, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.
- 2. A list of the candidate's names in alphabetical order, with the names of the members who nominated each candidate, must be posted in a conspicuous place in the office or usual place of meeting of the association for at least 7 days preceding the annual general meeting.
- 3. If required by the management committee, balloting lists must be prepared containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order.

RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL FROM OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER

- 1. A management committee member may resign from the committee by giving written notice of the resignation to the secretary.
- 2. The resignation takes effect on-
 - (a) the day and the time the written notice is received by the secretary; or
 - (b) if a later day is stated in the notice – the later day.
- 3. A member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the association if the majority of members present at the meeting vote in favour of removing the member.
- 4. Before a vote of members is taken about removing the member from office, the member must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.
- 5. A member has no right of appeal against the member's removal from office under this section.

VACANCIES ON MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 1. If a casual vacancy happens on the management committee, the continuing members of the committee may appoint another member of the association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.
- 2. The continuing members of the management committee may continue to act despite a vacancy on the management committee.
- 3. However, if the number of committee members is less than the number fixed under these rules as a quorum of the management committee, the continuing members may act only to-
 - (a) increase the number of management committee members to the number required for a quorum, or
 - (b) call a general meeting of the association.

FUNCTIONS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. Subject to these rules or a resolution of the association members carried at a general meeting, the management committee –
 - (a) has the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the association; and
 - (b) the authority to interpret the meaning of these rules and any matter relating to the association on which the rules are silent.
2. The management committee may exercise the powers of the association-
 - (a) to borrow, raise or secure the payment of amounts in a way the association members decide; and
 - (b) to secure the amounts mentioned in paragraph (a) or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the association in any way, including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) charged upon part or whole of the association's property, both present and future; and
 - (c) to purchase, redeem or pay off any securities issued; and
 - (d) to borrow amounts from members and pay interest on the amounts borrowed; and
 - (e) to mortgage or charge the whole or part of its property; and
 - (f) to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the association; and
 - (g) to provide and pay off any securities issued; and
 - (h) to invest in a way the members of the association may from time to time decide.
3. For sub-section 2.(d), the rate of interest must not be more than the current rate being charged for overdue accounts on money lent (regardless of the term of the loan) by –
 - (a) the financial institution for the association; or
 - (b) if there is more than 1 financial institution for the association – the financial institution nominated by the association.
